

MarinTrust Improver Programme FIP

Fishery under assessment	Gulf of Thailand Mixed-Trawl Fishery
Overview	Fishery assessment was carried out against the initial draft of the multispecies assessment criteria (further details available on request). This assessment will be updated using the revised version of these criteria during 2021 as part of IP compliance and the criteria development process.
Management authority (Country/State)	Department of Fishery, Bangkok Thailand
Species scope	Multispecies (main species groups): Encrasicholina spp., group of Leiognathidae, Selaroides leptolepis, Loliginidae, Enrasicholina heteroloba, Priacanthus tayenus, Photololigo duvaucelii, Group of Upeneus, Rastrelliger brachysoma, Leiognathus splendens
Fishery location	Gulf of Thailand
Gear type(s)	Paired Trawl, Otter Board Trawl, and Beam Trawl
Start date	Oct 2020
Expected end date	Ongoing pilot project (see website for further details)
FIP Coordinator organisation	Thai Sustainable Fishery Roundtable
Participants	To be updated following site audits
Other FIP Stakeholders	Department of Fisheries Thai Fishmeal Producer Association Thai Feed Mill association Thai fisheries Association Thai oversea fisheries association Thai shrimp association Thai food processors association Thai frozen foods association Thai Tuna association
Last FIP surveillance	Initial in 2019/2020
Next FIP surveillance due	Oct 2021 (6-month check in April 2021)